PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Standard Condition # 5: You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about you living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change. |

Re: Reyes, Joey Valentino

June 10, 2020

Supporting Evidence: Joey Reyes violated the terms of his supervised release by changing his residence without approval of the probation officer and failing to report a change in residence on or about June 2, 2020.

On March 10, 2020, Mr. Reyes was sentenced under a revocation judgment. He was granted credit for time served. On March 12, 2020, he entered inpatient treatment at Pioneer Center East (PCE). He discharged on April 30, 2020, and a supervision intake was completed on May 5, 2020. At that time, he acknowledged an understanding of the conditions imposed by the Court, to include standard condition number 5 noted above.

On May 6, 2020, Mr. Reyes began residing at the Union Gospel Mission in Spokane, Washington. He indicated a desire to participate in their long-term recovery program.

On June 4, 2020, Mr. Reyes communicated via text messaging with the undersigned to report various appointments he had attended, but made no reference to changing his residence.

On June 8, 2020, the undersigned contacted the Union Gospel Mission to learn that he had left the UGM on the evening of June 2, 2020, and had not returned until Saturday June 13, 2020, to pick up his belongings.

Attempts were made to contact Mr. Reyes by telephone, but were unsuccessful. His whereabouts are currently unknown.

2

Special Condition # 3: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Joey Reyes violated the terms of his supervised release by failing to appear for a random urinalysis test on or about June 4, 2020.

On March 10, 2020, Mr. Reyes was sentenced under a revocation judgment. He was granted credit for time served. On March 12, 2020, he entered inpatient treatment at Pioneer Center East (PCE). He discharged on April 30, 2020, and a supervision intake was completed on May 5, 2020. At that time, he acknowledged an understanding of the conditions imposed by the Court, to include special condition number 3 noted above.

On May 5, 2020, Mr. Reyes was placed on phase drug testing at Pioneer Counseling Services (PCS). He was directed to call the testing line daily and report for testing on days his color was called.

On June 5, 2020, PCS notified the probation officer that Mr. Reyes did not show for testing on June 4, 2020.

At this time, his whereabouts are unknown.
